High School Taxes Much Lower Than Last Year, Is Said

How current year economy budgets of Santa Clara county high schools enable taxpayers to keep dollars in their pockets which last year they had to pay out in tax payments, is shown in a report prepared in the office of county superintendent of schools Joseph E. Hancock.

Comparing high school district tax rates for the current year with last, the report shows rates for the nine districts are, without exception, lower this year than last, in most cases markedly lower. At the same time the tax rate was lowered, the assessed valuation decreased from $101,784,440 to $99,406,785.

The tax rate for the Campbell union high school district the report shows, was .43 for the year 1931-32 as against .24 for the year 1932-33.

Following is the report in full:

HIGH SCHOOL DISTRICT TAX RATE

	31-2	32-3
Campbell Union	.43	.24
Fremont Union	.51	.41
Gilroy	.64	.42
Live Oak Union	.75	.48
Los Gatos Union	.75	.33
Mountain View Union	.75	.63
Palo Alto	.75	.56
San Jose	.75	.74
Santa Clara Union	.55	.29

Teachers of the San Jose school department contribute 5 per cent of their salaries to charity relief, a reduction which does not affect the tax rate.

High school district taxes in Santa Clara county have been slashed $137,196.53 in two years, according to a report prepared in the office of county superintendent of schools Joseph E. Hancock of district tax funds received by the nine high school districts of the county.

For the year ending June, 1931, the nine high schools received from their district taxes $850,903. For the year ending June, 1932, this amount had been cut $23,167 to $837,736. For the current year, economy budgets brought the total down an additional $124,029.53, to $713,706.47.

Receipts for the Campbell union high school district for the three year period: 1930-31, $32,192.81; 1931-32, $26,793.09; 1932-33, $14,844.67.

At a regular session, presided over by Emma Dober, the nominationo of officers was held. Candidates for president are Tony Satriano, Hugh Cramer, Gordon Stafford, Lloyd Anderson, and Jack Marlaio. For vice president, Horace Person, Frances Pryor, Al Tedesco, Robert Burrow, Katherine Seko. J. C. Ainsley Garden To Be Scene of Party Thursday

The spacious garden of the J. C. Ainsley home at the intersection of Hamilton and Johnson avenues will be the scene of a garden party Thursday afternoon, May 18. The party is being given by the Santa Clara County Federation of Women's Clubs for the benefit of the scholarship fund maintained by the organization.

The Campbell Country Woman's club, Moreland Goodwill club, Pundita Circle, and the We and Our Neighbors club will have charge of the tea which will be served during the afternoon. Tables for cards will be available.

On the afternoon program will appear Charles Kellog, better-known as the "bird man." He will give imitations of birds and several demonstrations to do with the human voice. His experiences encountered during his wanderings throughout the country will be of interest.

Several vocal solos will be given by Arthur Johnson, and a group of blind musicians from the East Bay Club for Blind Women in Berkeley will present a group of solos. Mrs. Elford Eddy, the first blind woman to possess a "seeing eye" dog will give a talk on the work and accomplishments of the club for blind women. Selections by the San Jose State College orchestra will complete the program.

FUTURE FARMERS HOST TO PARENTS AT RECENT MEET

The agricultural students of the Campbell union high school were hosts to their parents and teachers at a banquet held recently in the auditorium of the high school building.

Games were played, after which the Future Farmer officers gave their guests a sample of how they conducted their meetings. Ignatius Turturici, Frank Rinauro, and Sam Manfre gave a few selections on their accordions and saxaphone. Walter Amstutz and John Hobe gave a dialogue on fertilizer for orchards. Frank DeRose, Albert Mancuso, Tour Ogino explained an experiment they had tried, to find what kind of fertilizer their soil needed. Tony Pisano, student of M. F. Hughes, farm mechanics instructor, exhibited some useful farm tools that had been made at the high school and Norman Husted gave a short talk on the poultry gains he had made on his farm project during the year. Two boxing matches were held; Ignatius Turturici vs. Albert Mancuso and Joseph Mancuso vs. Bill Corey with Tony Dorso as referee for both. F. E. Long, agricultural instructor, gave a talk on farming projects taken over by the young men.

This successful banquet was sponsored by the local chapter of the Future Farmers of America, a national organization of students taking vocational agriculture.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Smith and C. T. Fawcett returned Thursday evening from a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. Irish in Redding and with Mr. and Mrs. James F. Knappen in Marysville.

WOMAN'S CLUB HAS INTERESTING TOPIC AT MEETING

"Industries of Southern California" as developed by Mrs. Florine B. Peake for the Country Woman's club Monday was as fascinating as a tale of romance, in fact it might well have been titled the "Romance of Industry."

Basing her talk on the book, "March of Industry" by Robert Cleland and Osgood Hardy she gave a most vivid, comprehensive but at the same time concise review of the history of California as it determined the industrial life.

Beginning with stock raising and some agriculture instituted by the mission padres, the second phase was trade with the English and Chinese, when hides and tallow were the purchasing medium and cattle raising was the chief industry of the ranchos.

Then followed the freight caravans over the Santa Fe trail bringing a greater variety of things and the simple pastoral life was temporarily restored.

The gold rush brought men of every trade and craft, who settled down to their various industries after the first mad rush and eventually the state was roughly divided into the mining section, the northern cities and the "cow counties." This was the period when the great cattle barons flourished.

After the great drouth sheep raising prospered until another drouth decimated the flocks.

Now the great holdings began to be subdivided and fenced and every one raised hay and grain.

Later diversified farming developed, but still whole sections went boldly on trying first one project and then another, some of which have proved profitable but others colossal failures. Among them have been the growing of grapes, olives, figs, mulberry trees and silk worms eucalyptus groves, citrus fruits, beans and cotton.

Other important industries are fish canning, oil production and refining and the impounding and distribution of water. Many minor crops are grown and poultry raising is a growing occupation. The development of the motion picture industry has brought millions of dollars to this section of the state.

The program was opened with community singing led by Mrs. Ralph Hyde with Mrs. George Robson at the piano, and was concluded with the serving of dainty refreshments.

Mrs. Peake was assisted by Miss Jessie Lewis, Mrs. George Burrow, Mrs. Laura Allen and Miss Anne Schulte. Mrs. Emma Dalvit was unable to be present on acount of illness.

Plans for the County Federation Garden party to be held Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. C. Ainsley were discussed, as the local clubs are serving the tea.

Announcement was made that the annual picnic on June 5 will be held at the home of Mrs. D. H. Cramer. Further notice will appear later.

A basket of beautiful golden emblem roses from Robert Scholz's gardens, and a lovely French bouquet of columbine, sweet peas and bluebells in a large Chinese bowl arranged by Mrs. Peake, elicited many compliments and added to the pleasure of the afternoon.

Born—to Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Gilbert of Latimer avenue, a son, Sunday night at the San Jose hospital.

Pundita Circle Entertained At C. E. York Home

Members of the Pundita Circle were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. E. York on Quito road last Wednesday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Stanley Smith and Mrs. A. E. Wood.

Mrs. D. H. Cramer, president of the circle, presided over the business meeting. A nominating committee was selected to suggest officers for the coming year. On the committee are Mrs. R. Y. Maxon, Mrs. M. E. Purmort and Mrs. L. J. Carboni.

During the program Mrs. Smith read an interesting paper on the history and development of psychology. Mrs. Wood read a paper which dealt with the various phases of psychology, and gave illustrations of the effect of music on minds.

Tea and a social hour followed the program.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. F Pope. The business meeting will be taken up by the election of officers and the annual reports of officers and committee chairmen. Mrs. C. H. Davidson will assist Mrs. Pope.

Joe McKinnon Tells Kiwanis of County Zoning Law; Charter

Supervisor Joseph McKinnon as speaker at Kiwanis yesterday gave a very instructive talk on the county zoning law and the proposed county charter.

Thus far the state zoning law of 1911 has been applied to only one district in this county and that at the solicitation of those interested. The zoned territory is along the Bayshore highway of this county and the board of supervisors will not act on any other section of the county until petitioned by the residents and property holders of that section and definite plans submitted by the petitioners properly sanctioned by the county zoning board. The zoning board has no authority but acts anly as an advisory committee to the supervisors. Supervisor McKinnon stated this as the truth on the zoning plan.

In referring to the proposed county charter. Mr. McKinnon stated that if the electors wanted a charter form of government it could be secured by an election, but at this time of short funds was a poor time to spend such a large sum of money at it would entail.

Charter government, stated Mr. McKinnon has proved expensive elsewhere. San Bernardino county instead of having a tax rate 32 per cent lower than Santa Clara county as its classification would place it, has, in fact, a tax rate 32 per cent higher beside carrying a two million bonded indebtedness.

If the freeholder election were held at the coming special election, which is almost impossible because of the short time left, there would still be an increased tax burden on the county to cover its additional cost. The next general election would seem to be a more suitable and economical time.

Ed Wiesendanger will be chairman of next Tuesday's meeting and Mr. Kinsley, secretary of the Citizen's Tax league will be speaker.

STEPHEN MERRILL ESCAPES INJURY, BAYSHORE CRASH

Stephen Merrill narrowly escaped serious injury when he figured in a wreck on the Bayshore highway late Sunday night, as he was returning from a radio broadcast in San Francisco.

Passing a slow-moving truck, Merrill was confronted by a northbound car which was encroaching on the outside southbound lane, and in order to avert a head-on collision he cut in on the truck. The northbound car, however, caught the left rear fender of Merrills coupe, turning it over. He was taken to the San Mateo emergency hospital for examination, along with the occupants of the other car, one of whom was quite badly hurt.

Dr. W. I. Merrill was notified, and motored immediately to San Mateo to bring his son the rest of the way home.

THE FARMERS CORNER

By Ralph H. Taylor

With the legislative maelstrom at an end, at least until the start of the short-session in July to consider taxation and other urgency issues, California's state-wide farm organizations have settled down to the job of sifting the results and counting "profit and loss."

While it is too early to make a correct evaluation of the 1933 session from the constructive standpoint, a preliminary check-up shows more than 100 destructive measures, inimical to the agricultural industry, were defeated, either in vommittees or in the two houses.

Strong on defense, the farm organizations successfully combatted attempts to break down the trespass laws, headed off other bills which would have crippled effective action against cattle rustlers, and halted efforts to undermine essential quarantine restrictions.

The farm groups were also successful in killing many ill-considered proposals for "extravagant economy", which might have saved the state a few thousands but might very well have cost California farmers millions in losses. On the other hand, agriculture took the lead in effecting real economics in its own branch of government—the Department of Agriculture—, and fought vigorously for the elimination of waste and extravagance throughout the state service.

Campbell Invited To Enter Gymkhana Queen Candidate

For the first time in the history of talking moving pictures some young girl hailing from Central California will be given an opportunity to pose before the great sound cameras of Hollywood as the result of having won a queen contest. This opportunity awaits the winner of Gilroy's famous popularity contest which will decide what particular western girl will reign over the city as queen of the Round-up on June 10 and 11.

Campbell has been cordially invited by the Gilroy Round-up and Gymkhana association to enter a candidate who will compete with fair representatives of every important community in this section of the state for the honor of being chosen "The Girl of the Golden West" at Gilroy's famous Gymkhana.

The queen contest will be held on Friday night, June 9, and the winner, together with her escorts, will be given a free trip to Hollywood where, through the courtesy of Ken Maynard noted cowboy star, she will be given an opportunity to exhibit her talents before the sound camera of that organization.

Arrangements for the selection of the candidate to represent this city is in the hands of local committeemen and further details will be announced in the near future.

Stanley B. Smith Lauds Work Of Commissioner Cody

The work of L. R. Cody, horticultural commissioner for Santa Clara county, is invaluable, according to Stanley B. Smith of the Orchard Supply company, who talked at the Orchard City grange recently.

The prevention by Cody of an invasion of the omnivorous Japanese beetle was cited by Mr. Smith as an example of the commissioner's work. Mr.Cody inspects all shrub and plants which are shipped into the county. Recently he found and destroyed the larva of a Japanese beetle on a shrub shipped from Pennsylvania.

The Japanese beetle has attacked many thousands of square miles of territory in eastern states. Agriculturists have found few satisfactory methods of combatting it. It feeds on apple, cherry, plum, chestnut and peach trees,and will strip an attacked tree of from 20 to 80 per cent of its foliage.

The beetle also attacks all kinds of garden plants and shrubbery, and is very harmful to lawns. As an example of the expense involved in fighting the insect, Mr. Smith stated that $20 worth of chemicals were used to rid a small lawn of the pest.

A great thing has occurred amongst us. We have made a complete turn-around, and at last America's face is toward the future.

Three years---1929 to 1932---we Americans looked backward. All our old financial and political machinery was geared to pull us out of the depression by the same door through which we entered. We thought it simply a case of going back the way we came. It failed. We now realize that the way out is forward---through it.

Thanks for that belongs to President Roosevelt. Inauguration Day he turned the Ship of State around. Having observed the failure of sincere efforts to haul us back the way we came, he designed a new method---new political and financial machinery---to pull us out the way we are going---forward. He is clearing international obstacles out of the way; he does not stand in awe of tariffs. The people begin to feel that he does not take advice from the "interests"; that he has courage and loyalty to work for one supreme interest only---the welfare of the American people. That is a big achievement for two months in office.

And now we all look to what is coming; we grow less and less concerned with what is behind. We are looking for a hand-hold on the haul rope. Every man wants to do what he can, and all he can.

The best thing I can do for the Country is to create industry by building good motor cars. If I knew anything better to do, I would do it. Industry must be my contribution. Motor cars must face ahead to the future, like everything else. They are so much a part of the Nation's daily life that if they lag behind they hold the Country back.

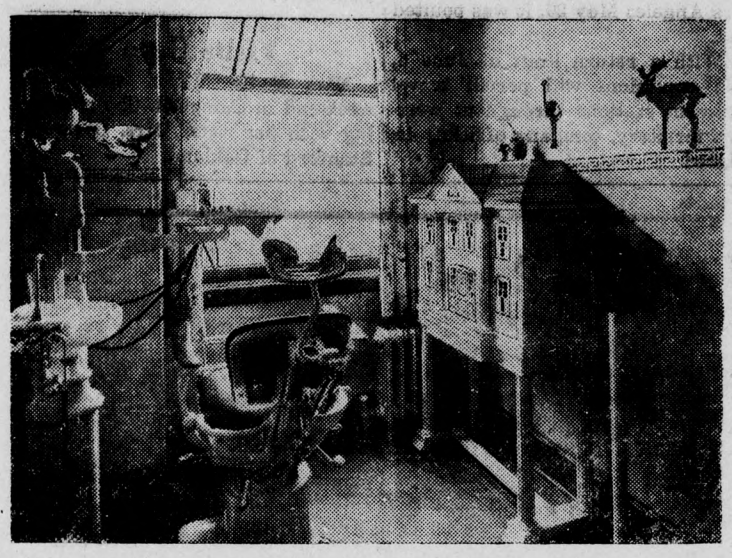
CHILDREN'S DENTAL PROBLEMS ARE PARAMOUNT IN THIS VALLEY OFFICE



It is not very often that inside pictures will set the camera of a photographer clicking just for the interest they inject, but such a situation occurred with Peter Pavley, former newspaper cameraman, when he went to the office of Dr. K. M. Anderson to have a tooth treated recently.

An addition, being constructed in Dr. Anderson's office aroused Pavley's interest. Still a news cameraman at heart he believed that the dental "play room" of Dr. Anderson's was worthy of photographing. It is one of the most unusual pieces of dental equipment in this section of the west.

The dental room, the instrument cabinet, the sterilizer, the tiny dental chair, the waste receptacle, the wall decorations—everything in the place, is designed to please and interest children, designed to change the difficulties of dentistry to pleasures.

The "child-atmosphere" starts in the waiting room. Here is a tiny table with tiny chairs around it. There are books on the table carefully chosen to interest the children. Time for dental work arrives and the child is ushered into the dental "play room."

If he is the normal imaginative child dental work will probably be the last thing he will consider. The instrument case may attract him first. It is a perfect doll house. There are doors and windows and a pretty green roof and a chimney. It is entirely practical, however, with hundreds of instruments within it.

Perhaps the next thing to attract the visitor is the bird house waste receptacle. Bits of cotton and other waste are stuffed down the chimney of this miniature residence. Actually it is attractive enough and so conveniently built that it could be used as a genuine bird house in anyone's yard.

The sterilizer is covered with a group of child pictures of mother goose type. The wall is littered with animals—every animal that got on the Ark, to all appearances. There are elephants, and tigers, and lions, and camels, and dromedaries, and wolves, and bears. An airplane is there too, just to keep the child interested if he is "air-minded."

"The greatest difficulty in child dentistry," Dr. Anderson said, "is to remove the thought of fear from the mind of the young patient. His parents have probably said, 'this won't hurt you,' so of course the child is immediately afraid of being hurt.

"The whole play equipment of the child's room is arranged to lull any thought of fear in the patient's mind. Sometimes a short talk with him will do wonders. I have even had such children in my office two or three times gaining their confidence, before working on them.

"Dentists realize that the health of grown-up teeth depends to a great extent on the treatment of the mouth in childhood. Neglect in childhood is generally due to a child's fear of the dentist. The profession is taking great pains to overcome this difficulty. I believe that examination and necessary treatment every two months, if rigidly adhered to, will result in greatly improved teeth among members of the rising generation."

The words "hurt" and "pain" are never mentioned in this junior operating room. The drill here ceases to be an instrument, and becomes a "bee" instead. A bee that may "tickle," but never hurt. The small electrically operated chair is an "elevator," and hand instruments are likened to the woodpecker whose picture is painted on the wall.

"In fact," said the Doctor, "nothing which takes the young mind off the real purpose of his visit is neglected. Psychology as applied to children's dentistry is being regarded with more and more importance by members of the profession, and in this "junior" room you see the forerunner of what will in time become the accepted method and equipment throughout the country."

Dr. W. P. Shepard To Speak At T. B. Association Dinner

Dr. William P. Shepard, assistant secretary of the San Francisco offices of the Metropolitan Life Insurance company, will be the principal speaker at the annual dinner meeting of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis association in the Sainte Claire Hotel, San Jose, Monday evening May 22, it was announced yesterday by Mrs. W. I. Merrill of Campbell.

A public dinner meeting is planned this year by the association, she explained, in order to bring directly to the public at large the program of health conservation it sponsors and finances. The work done in this community is proportionate to the seals sold at the annual Christmas seal sale.

Dr. Shepard, Mrs. Merrill stated, is known throughout the United States for his public health activities. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota and served on the faculty of its medical school before coming west. He was health officer of Berkeley and was director of the Berkeley health center from 1924 to 1926.

Included among his many activities now are the following: Board of Directors, Berkeley Health Center; clinical professor, Stanford University Medical school; member executive committee, San Francisco Community Chest and member California White House conference on Child Health and Protection.

Mrs. Merrill is actively working on a committee to secure a representation from this community at association's dinner.

SAVE 2 WAYS
In first cost. Prices have never been so low and may never be so low again.
In operating cost. You will receive FULL SERVICE of hot water in your home at one-half the per gallon cost.

You spend to save when you buy an AUTOMATIC GAS WATER HEATER

THIS is no time to neglect thrift. It is no time to waste money. You do neither when you heat water by means of an Automatic Gas Water Heater. After all, it is just plain arithmetic, being proved daily in thousands of California homes, that you spend to save when you have an Automatic installed in your home.

Consider this: If you are using a water heater that has to be lighted with a match, and also frequently resort to tea kettle hot water, every gallon of water so heated costs twice as much as it would if hot water were always on tap from the insulated tank of an Automatic.

You should investigate this form of saving in your home. You should take advantage of the low prices of these truly modern Automatic Gas Water Heaters. Prices have never been as low, and right now special easy-to-purchase terms are in effect.

See a representative of this company today or consult your local gas appliance dealer. An Automatic can be purchased this month for as little as $4.85 down and $3.85 a month. Act now on this thrift-wise suggestion.
